Ball fastest in Southern Tier run

Kenmore East's Zack Ball (16:47) in the boys varsity large school race and Alden's

Jaime Wallace (19:19) in the girls medium school race turned in the best times in the 15th annual Souther Tier Classic Cross Country Invitational run on a course through the St. Bonaventure University campus. The event is organized and run by the Allegany-Limestone cross country team.

"The girls' large school race was pretty cool with two points separating the top three teams," said Allegany-Limestone coach Kathy

Stametz. Clarence with its depth prevailed by edging second-place Orchard Park, 52-53. Lake Shore was third with 54. Clarence, East Aurora and Eisenhower
